Choice seed wheat for sale by Jas. R. Shaw.

Mr. Jas. Ferguson, of this county, went into the grocery of Mr. Jas. M. Todd Tuesday afternoon to settle an account, and being under the influence of liquor, disputed the correctness of the amount, but finally paid it. After doing so he told Mr. Todd that he had just as well have stolen that much from him. The words had hardly left his lips when Mr. Todd reached over the show case and planted a stinging blow with his fist on Ferguson's face, cutting a gash under his eye. Parties standing near immediately interfered and stopped any further trouble.

A lady who was standing in the crowd on the pavement at the Capital Hotel Tuesday morning when Gov. Knott came out and took his seat in the carriage to join in the procession, had her pocket picked of a purse containing a few dollars. In speaking of her loss to a friend she said that a tall man with heavy red whiskers stood near her and was very kind in opening the way through the crowd so that she could see the new Governor, and she was very confident he took her money. As the man in question happened to be the new Secretary of State, Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie, we think she was slightly mistaken.

WANTED.—Potatoes, in any quantity, from 10 to 10,000 bushels, at Jas. R. Shaw's, South's building

A freight train on the L. & N. Railroad ran off the track near Spring Station Saturday morning, and all trains on the road were delayed from six to ten hours. One of the cars, loaded with steel rails for the road, in which five or six of the train men were seated, turned over and all the men were more or less injured, but none dangerously. The 10:20 a. m. passenger train from Louisville was detained here until late in the afternoon, and the passengers were kept in the train by being told that it would leave in a few minutes. Many of them went without dinner and were completely worn out with waiting.

Just now there is considerable of a row over the office of Register of the Land Office. It seems that in order to secure the nomination by the Democratic Convention, Mr. J. G. Cecil, who was elected to the position in August, made an agreement with Capt. Ralph Sheldon, also a candidate, by which that gentleman was to be appointed Deputy Register, and it is also said that he promised to appoint Maj. J. Alex. Grant and Mr. Jos. Norvell, both of this city, to clerkships in the office. When the time came for the fulfillment of these promises Cecil went back upon them and appointed Hon. Thos. H. Corbett, of Paducah, as his Deputy, Hon. E. D. Abbott, of Louisville, as first clerk, and a young man by the name of Crawford as second clerk. When he was sworn in on Monday and demanded of Sheldon that the office be turned over to him that gentleman declined to do so and refused to recognize him as Register, saying he intended to hold the office until paid out by the process of law, and is still holding the fort. Mr. Joe Norvell sleeps in the office at night and guards it against Cecil with a pistol, and Sheldon and he hold it during the day. Cecil continues to make formal demand of it every day, and will have Sheldon indicted for usurpation of the office, and will bring suit against him for every day he keeps him out of it. In the mean time the business of the office is at a standstill.

The result of the whole thing will be, that Capt. Sheldon will have to yield in the end, the experiment will be an expensive one to him, as the General Statutes prescribe as a penalty for his offense imprisonment in the Penitentiary, and the lawyers will make a fat thing out of it.

The Inauguration.

Tuesday was a great day in this city. One of the largest crowds ever assembled in this place was in town to witness the inauguration of Hon. J. Proctor Knott as Governor. All the regular trains coming in, and a long special which came up from Louisville, were crowded, and the country people for miles around came in, until all the principal streets and the Capitol Square were filled.

The new Governor did not arrive from Louisville until twelve o'clock, when he was met by the Committee of Reception and escorted to the Capitol Hotel.

The procession was then formed, composed of the First, Second and Third Regiments of State Guards, who had been encamped in Belle Point for several days, the Fire Department, and citizens in carriages, and proceeded to the Governor's Mansion and received Governor Blackburn thence to the Capitol Hotel and received Gov. Knott and other distinguished gentlemen, and then marched to the Capitol grounds, where the inaugural ceremonies took place in the presence of many thousands.

The ceremonies were begun with prayer by Rev. Dr. J. M. Lewis, of the Baptist Church, after which Gov. Blackburn read a lengthy farewell address, at the close of which Hon. Ira Julian presented him with a set of resolutions adopted by the citizens of Frankfort expressive of their regard for him upon his retirement, accompanied with appropriate remarks. Hon. E. H. Taylor, Mayor of the city, then delivered an address of welcome to the incoming Governor, which was followed by the inaugural address of that gentleman, which closed the ceremonies at the stand. Gov. Knott was then escorted to the Executive Office by Gov. Blackburn and the crowd began to disperse.

At night a grand hop was given at the Capitol Hotel Ball-room, which was more largely attended than any similar affair in this city for years. There was a regular crush, and for obtaining a complete list of the ladies present, to say nothing of the toilets, it was an impossibility. We give below a partial list of those present:

Louisville—Mrs. Dr. Will Cheatham, Mrs. John Bull, Mrs. Robert Poe, Mrs. John E. Castleman, Mrs. R. A. Peter, Mrs. Dudley Mullican, Mrs. Henry Hamilton, Mrs. Hamilton McCoy, Mrs. Charles Meriwether, Mrs. Louis Shalleross, Mrs. John Sales, Mrs. Judge C. S. Grubbs, Mrs. Albert S. Willis, Mrs. Miss Ellen and Eppa Shalleross, Misses Mattie Kinney, Bertie Parr, Minnie Louis, Nannie Dorsey, Nellie Trabue, Blanche Bromaker, Sussie Harby, Annie Kremer, Jennie Benedict, Annie Middleton, Bertie Louis, Myra Heinsohn, Fannie May, Miss Wingate, Lillie Jefferson, Mattie Cury.

Other Places—Misses Fannie Tuley and Cora Allison, of New Albany; Miss Sue Barbour, of Lagrange; Miss Fannie Owens, of Maysville; Miss Maggie Clay, of Paris; Mrs. Russell Sneed, of St. Louis; Miss Laura Pryor, of New Castle; Mrs. George Alexander, of Greenville, Miss; Mrs. Ben Hardin Helm and Miss Katie Helm, of Elizabethtown; Mrs. Ed. C. Newton and Miss Fannie Morrison, of Little Rock, Ark.; Miss Nettie McDowell, of Lexington; Miss Todd of Shelbyville; Miss Laura Lewis, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. John P. Goss and Miss Rachel Allison, Georgetown; Mrs. Henry Oswley, Midway; Miss Elsie Minor, St. Joseph, Missouri; Miss Louie D. Sanford, of Augusta, Georgia.

Frankfort—Mrs. Ex-Governor L. P. Blackburn, Mrs. Governor J. P. Knott, Mrs. James Rodman, Mrs. Thomas Rodman, Jr., Mrs. Alice Orbinson, Mrs. R. T. Childs, Mrs. Will. Cannon, Mrs. H. T. Sharp, Mrs. J. B. Lewis, Mrs. Judge Jos. H. Lewis, Mrs. H. F. Duncan, Mrs. R. P. Pepper, Mrs. Archer, Mrs. W. H. Posey, Mrs. E. E. Hume, Mrs. N. W. Casey, Mrs. J. A. Grant, Mrs. W. A. Gaines, Mrs. J. Stoddard Johnston, Mrs. Virgil Hewitt, Mrs. Ralph Sheldon, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Will. Rodman, Jr., Misses Rose Hewitt, Annie Hargis, Eleanor Holmes, Nellie Dudley, Sue Rodman, Lottie Staunta, Sallie Seel, Jeannette Taylor, Maria Lindsay, Bonnie Todd, Eliza Johnston, Cordie Cannon, Emma Miles, Lillie Cleveland, Laura Pepper, Teresa Blackburn, Corine Blackburn, Henrietta Blackburn, Belle Hensley, Mary Brown, Annie Brown, Mona Tate, Allie Todd, Mrs. Henry Davall, Mrs. F. C. Hughes, Misses Rose and Lena Stewart, Miss Hallie Craddock, Misses Annie South, Nellie Pickett, Kate Sanders, Belle Grant, Ettie Scott, Ella and Nora McManama, Jennie Gaines, Nannie Archer, Rubia Macklin, Joana Rodman, Nellie Thobald, Jossie Murphy, Fannie Murphy, Emily Thomas, Annie Thomas, Kate Green, Fannie Taylor, Nellie Sanders, Ella Freeman, Belle Climer, Mrs. Judge Hargis, Mrs. Clay Hatchett, Mrs. S. E. F. Trabue, Mrs. Will. Saffell, Mrs. A. P. Meriwether, Mrs. E. P. Bryan, Mrs. Chas. C. Newton, Misses Laura Craddock, Jessie Calmes, Carrie Rodman, Lizzie Macklin, Lattie Staunta, Martha Watson, Willie Robb, Iva Miles, Pattie Roberts, Mary Belle and Rebecca Taylor, Katie Gay, Lattie Ware, Maggie A. Lewis, Kate Sanders, Blanche Kendall, Mrs. L. C. Kendall, Mrs. E. C. Went, and many others.

Many of the business houses were beautifully decorated with flags, Chinese lanterns and appropriate designs. The most prominent of these were Messrs. Harris & Herrmann, Sower & Abler, Dan. McKeever, B. B. Gateley, Crutcher & Starks, L. Welzel and John T. Buckley, the latter gentleman putting up a gas pipe around the top of the portico in front of his building and furnishing an illumination that was excelled by none. Flags were suspended across the street at many points, and the motto, "Welcome," seen on every hand.

The new administration seems to be one of broken promises.

WANTED.—Ten thousand bushels of Irish potatoes by Jas. R. Shaw.

Elder P. S. Fall will preach at the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

The crowd which has been in the city this week drew a large number of pick-pockets.

The front of Messrs. W. A. Gaines & Co.'s new building will be one of the handsomest in the city.

The cool nights and mornings we are having now are making overcoats and fires comfortable.

Mr. Wm. L. McEwan will preach to-morrow morning at Franklin Presbyterian Church, at Bridgeport.

Mr. John E. Kirtley having accepted a position at the Penitentiary, Mr. Arch. P. Williams has been appointed agent of the Fannie Freese at this place.

As we had no rain with the change of the moon and the month, like the old woman who trusted in Providence until the breeching broke, we "gin clean up."

The night before he went out of office Gov. Blackburn commissioned Mr. F. G. Montgomery, Manager of the Telephone Exchange, as a Colonel on his staff.

Miss Jennie Jenkins, of the Antioch neighborhood, has a Poland duck which has laid ninety-three eggs in one hundred days this season. Rather remarkable work for one bird.

Jack Crutchfield charged with the murder of the illegitimate child of Bettie Lee Watts, had an examining trial Wednesday, and was discharged, there being little or no evidence against him.

FOUND.—The rim which holds the crystal of a lady's gold watch was picked up Tuesday afternoon on St. Clair street, near the Court-house, which the owner can have by calling at this office.

The walls of the new City Hall, which were out of plumb, have been straightened, and there is not a crack in them so the grave apprehensions entertained by many that the hall would not be safe when finished can be dismissed.

If a gun had been discharged accidentally in the crowd in the State House yard Tuesday, it is safe to say that at least three candidates for some office in the gift of the new administration or of the next Legislature would have been killed and as many wounded.

After the inauguration Tuesday afternoon, and just before the commencement of the militia began to be broken up a handsome sword was presented to Gen. J. P. Nuckols by the members of the Third Regiment, Capt. Rhea Boyd, of the Pulaski Guards, making the presentation speech.

A blind horse attached to a spring wagon went over the cliff on the river bank, between Heffner's blacksmith shop and the wagon maker's shop, Tuesday night. The horse was killed and the wagon smashed to pieces. His owner, who was drunk, left him standing on the street and he started home.

F. B. Staines, 20 out of 25.

Miss Ella Freeman, of Bridgeport, in getting off the train at the depot in this city, Monday morning, was robbed of her pocket book containing a few dollars in money and the check for her baggage. Some enterprising pick-pocket in the crowd opened a hand bag which was suspended from her wrist and took it out.

One of the best gotten up displays in the procession Tuesday was the Hook and Ladder Team of the Fire Department, which is run by Mr. John T. Buckley and his hands. In order to get it ready in time these gentlemen had to work until a late hour the night before. In view of the fact they get to pay whatever for their services they deserve great credit.

The following is the cabinet of the new Governor:

Secretary of State—Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie, of Christian county.
Assistant Secretary of State—H. M. McCarty, of Paducah.
Private Secretary—Chas. E. Kincaid, of Louisville.
Adjutant General—Col. John B. Castleman, of Louisville.
Commissioner of Agriculture—Col. John Davis, of Shelbyville.

Just as Gov. Blackburn was leaving the Capital Building Wednesday morning he was called into one of the offices where the heads of departments and their clerks were gathered to take leave of him, and Prof. J. D. Pickett, on behalf of those assembled, presented him, with appropriate remarks, a handsome gold-headed walking cane and a set of resolutions expressive of the high regard in which he was held by those with whom he had been associated during the past four years. The Governor responded in a feeling manner, after which there was a hand-shaking all around, and the Governor left to accompany his wife on a visit to friends in Lexington.

Miss Frances E. Willard, the celebrated temperance lecturer, will arrive in this city this afternoon and will deliver a lecture at the Methodist Church to-morrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock, and also at night at a quarter before eight. No one who has ever heard this gifted lady talk will fail to be present, and all who have never had an opportunity of hearing her before should avail themselves of the present and attend. She is one of the first talkers in America and has drawn large audiences wherever she has been. Let every one go and hear her, the ladies especially. She will be the guest of Dr. Morris Evans during her stay in the city.

A difficulty took place in the bar-room at the Capital Hotel Tuesday afternoon, which resulted in the bar-keeper, Mr. Frank Kennedy, receiving a pistol ball in his left shoulder. It seems that Mr. Jos. P. Bohannan went into the bar-room between one and two o'clock and had some words with Kennedy, when the latter handled him rather roughly and put him out of the room. In a few minutes afterward Mr. Richard Bohannan came to the door, drew a pistol and began firing at Kennedy, the first shot lodging in the counter, and the second striking him in the left arm and ranging upward into the shoulder, inflicting a painful wound, which will render his arm stiff for life. Kennedy then dropped down behind the counter and saved himself from further injury. Bohannan surrendered himself to an officer, was taken before Judge Sneed and was released on one thousand dollars' bond until Monday, when his examining trial will take place.

FRANKFORT, KY., Sept. 4, 1883.

Editor, Roundabout.

We would like to suggest to our Postmaster the propriety of removing his office to some more suitable locality. While it may be just in the right place for those gentlemen who wish to "ten like they are going to the post-office," when in reality they are going a door or two beyond, it is not the most suitable place in the world for ladies to visit on account of its proximity to a bar-room. During the shooting Tuesday afternoon there were a number of ladies in the office and several of them were near fainting from fright. Besides this, the steps are not easy for an old person to go up and down, especially in bad weather, the locality seems no healthy one for those who are compelled to stay there constantly, and I am informed that two of the clerks have been suffering from chills and fever at intervals nearly ever since the office has been where it now is, and it is away from the business center of the city. These I believe to be good reasons for the removal, and would respectfully ask the Doctor to consider them. I know a large majority of his numerous patrons are anxious for

A CHANGE.

PLAIN TRUTHS

The blood is the foundation of life, it circulates through every part of the body, and unless it is pure and rich, good health is impossible. If disease has entered the system the only sure and quick way to drive it out is to purify and enrich the blood.

These simple facts are well known, and the highest medical authorities agree that nothing but iron will restore the blood to its natural condition; and also that all the iron preparations hitherto made blacken the teeth, cause headache, and are otherwise injurious. Brown's Iron Bitters will thoroughly and quickly assimilate with the blood, purifying and strengthening it, and thus drive disease from any part of the system, and it will not blacken the teeth, cause headache or constipation, and is positively not injurious.

Saved his Child.

17 N. E. St., Baltimore, Md., Feb. 12, 1883.

Gent.—Upon the recommendation of a friend I tried Brown's Iron Bitters as a tonic and restorative for my daughter, whom I was thoroughly convinced was wasting away with Consumption. Having lost three daughters by the terrible disease, under the care of eminent physicians, I was loath to believe that anything could be the progress of this disease, but, to my great surprise, before my daughter had taken one bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters, she began to mend and now is quite restored to former health. A fifth daughter began to show signs of Consumption, and when this physician was consulted he quickly said "Tonics were required," and when informed that the elder sister was taking Brown's Iron Bitters, replied "That is a good tonic, take it."
